

HeartSwapz Mini Art Collection

Thank you for being part of my creative journey!

I paint these tiny pieces every evening as a way to unwind and play. Below you'll find two minis to print, cut and use however you like—tuck them into your journal, trade them as ATCs or send one to a friend who could use a little joy. There's no right or wrong way to enjoy them.

"Joyful Songbird"

Where does your imagination want this bird to fly? Use the space around it to jot down a dream or a destination.

"Heart & Petal Tangle"

As you trace the lines or add your own colours, reflect on the small things that fill your heart right now.

I'd love to see how these minis come to life in your world! Share a photo or tag me on social with #HeartSwapzMini so we can celebrate together. And if you're curious about receiving a surprise mini print and more goodies every month, keep an eye on your inbox—I'll be in touch soon.

With creativity and gratitude,
Rosa

Bonus Backgrounds

These Procreate-painted backgrounds are meant to be played with—use them as a base for your journaling, collaging or card-making, or cut them into shapes to add pops of colour and texture. There's no right or wrong way to enjoy them; let their washes of colour guide your next creative experiment.
